Sale Signs vs Want Ads

A few days ago we told of a man who sold a light sleigh in a few hours after his Want Ad appeared in the Post-Crescent. There is another light sleigh for sale in Appleton but the owner evidently believes in signs for he has had one on it offering it for sale. It is located about two blocks from the man who sold his sleigh. Why the difference?

IDEALS OF PEACE
IN DEATH GRIPS
WITH WAR IDEALS

No Reason Why America Should Withdraw From Europe,
Dr. Evans Says

Tracing the certain approach of the world to the great rational idea of peace, Dr. Silas Evans, president of Union college, spoke at the People's Forum in Lawrence Memorial chapel Sunday evening on "America in World Affairs."

Two ideals are struggling for supremacy, Dr. Evans said. They are militarism and peace. In this organic world some of the old order hangs over the new because many men are dogmatists either way, but with a little patience, as the world goes in the right direction, the idea of peace will win. When the belief in war ceases there will be no more war, he said.

The speaker quoted many of the big thinkers of earlier and modern days indicating the change of thought from war to peace, and in showing how America must be a part of the world order, mentioning their old diplomacy for that of the open discussion characterizing United States in the arms conference.

W. S. Ford acted as forum chairman and Dr. A. A. Trevor of Lawrence college gave the invocation. Organ numbers were rendered by Mrs. A. L. Brigham. The mixed quartet, scheduled to sing did not appear because of illness of two members, but Prof. Carl J. Waterman rendered two solos, "Living God," and "The Holy City."

CHANGE WORLD FAITH

"We have war because we believe in war," Dr. Evans declared. "It is a prodigious task to change the faith of the world, but there is no more mechanical, stubborn fatalism that will stand in the way of reconstructing the plant. The greatest thing in God's universe is an idea that has come to its day, and I believe there is a great big idea coming to its day now."

The speaker spoke in an illustrative way of the struggle of militarists and the peace order for supremacy, showing how dogmatists of one group won't stand for disarming in any way and the others want disarmament of everything, even the police force.

A NEW DIPLOMACY

"The diplomacy of tomorrow will put its cards on the table as Hughes did at the Washington conference," said Dr. Evans. Speaking of Hay's "diplomacy," diplomacy and the European kind, he said: "When everybody expects everybody to lie, how wholesome it is when Americans like Hughes, Bryan and others speak out as plainly as they did. American genius all the way through is the genius for leadership of peace. The whole supreme inner court of America is amazingly loyal to this idea."

Instruments prepared at the Washington conference come as the dictate of the faith of America, said the mentor. He scored those who were attacking the four-power treaty, the naval treaty and the agreements now being made, saying no great document, even the constitution, solved all. He believed like Roosevelt, that "when we can't get the impossible, let's take the best possible."

America smashed all traditions when she went to Europe, but there is no logic which will not permit her to stay there, now that we are in Europe. Dr. Evans believed it better, however, for America to get in on the major premise in these matters and assert its influence, rather than come in at the conclusion. It is well, he said, to foster the liberal rather than the militaristic element in these countries. He criticized those who believe England and Japan are foes, saying if America tried to swat one or both, she would be swatting herself.

JUNK OLD IDEAS

Old world ideas are dying hard at the Washington conference, the speaker declared. A new idea, that of peace, is cracking over the heads of the foreign statesmen. The old traditions of diplomacy, the old fighting for effect are missing. There is a need more for scrapping old diplomacy than scrapping ships. At Washington there is no hall of mirrors, no side rooms where everything is settled secretly, and no back stairs. An American man, beginning the conference in an American way, struck a telling blow. He proposed a sane, practical, necessary program as an opening wedge.

Those and perhaps the Geneva conference, all are feeding the great rational idea, said Dr. Evans. He closed with Victor Hugo's prediction of the day when peaceful methods will prevail and cannon will be exhibited in public museums as an instrument of torture in earlier days.

YOUNG BURGLAR
CAUGHT IN SHOP
BY PROPRIETOR

Henry Skall Unable to Get Out of Harness Shop When Owner Arrives

Caught in his own trap, Henry Skall, 14, was found in the act of burglarizing the harness shop of William F. Radtke at 880 College-ave. Sunday night when Mr. Radtke entered the place to replenish the fire.

The youthful marauder had entered the place by cutting out sections of a rear window with a jackknife and then running two paces. This window is about 15 feet above the ground and he had climbed up on a ladder. Mr. Radtke's unexpected entrance came too quickly for the boy to make his escape.

In looking about the place Mr. Radtke missed a pair of fur mittens but these were not found on the boy and he denied any knowledge of them. The police were notified and the boy was taken to the police station where he was being held for an investigation Monday.

JACKKNIFE IS CLEW

The use of a jackknife in gaining entrance to the harness shop is believed to incriminate Skall in several other depredations which have occurred lately. The work is said to be similar to that performed recently in the Jenson Arcade and the Union pharmacy. Police expected to question the lad in connection with this and other burglaries sometime Monday after they had completed their investigation. This will determine what charges will be made against him in court.

TAKE FIRST STEPS TOWARD SOLVING SCHOOL PROBLEM

HIRE EXPERT TO MAKE SURVEY OF APPLETON NEEDS

G. L. Lockhart Urged as Director of Procedure in School Campaign

At a meeting of the joint committee of the common council and board of education in the city hall Saturday evening a resolution was unanimously adopted recommending to the common council that G. L. Lockhart of St. Paul, an architect who specializes in school buildings, be engaged for the sum of $1,000 to furnish the city with a perspective view and sketch of plans of a suitable school building, with a school census and educational survey of the city; and with all literature necessary to place authentic information in the hands of voters.

The architect appeared before the committee for the first time a week ago and outlined his plan of erecting school buildings and made so favorable an impression the committee came near recommending his appointment at that time, but the vote on the resolution was delayed until the committee could procure recommendations from school boards for whom he had erected buildings. Chairman A. W. Laabs, who presided at the meeting Saturday evening, read 15 letters from school boards in Minnesota and Iowa all of which gave him their unqualified endorsement. One of the latest school buildings erected by Mr. Lockhart was a $1,000,000 structure at Austin, Minn.

The architect was again present at the meeting Saturday evening and after making a brief statement as to his method of procedure answered numerous questions put to him. He agreed to do the preliminary work for $1,000 which is to be deducted from a total fee of 6 per cent providing the bond issue carries and the work is carried to completion. The architect agrees to speak at such public meetings as may be desirable; illustrate with motion pictures and stereopticon slides the various features of the proposed structure; provide legal forms and full legal opinion by well known attorneys in order to receive bids upon the sale of bonds; and facilitate proceedings to eliminate errors in the handling of the issues.

For compensation of 6 per cent of the total cost of the work the architect also agrees to furnish preliminary drawings, contract working drawings and specifications, detail drawings and take general supervision of the building operations. The architect's complete drawing and specifications include lighting, plumbing, heating, ventilating, building equipment and landscaping.

The joint school committee consists of A. W. Laabs, Joseph Mayer, P. H. Fiedler, J. T. Lappen, L. O. Hansen and William Murphy of the common council and W. H. Kress, W. H. Hackleman, J. H. Harbeck, John Hantschel and Leo C. Rasey of the board of education. Alderman Murphy inquired what the city proposed to build, a new high school, a junior high school, or an addition to the present high school and was informed by Chairman Laabs that the purpose of the survey to be made by the architect is to find out what the city can do.

Gas From Food Presses on Heart

If food does not digest it turns into poisons which form gas. This often presses on heart and other organs causing a nervous, restless feeling. Simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerka, removes foul, decaying food-matter you never thought was in your system which caused gas and pressure on heart. Adlerka expels poisons and gas from BOTH upper and lower bowel. EXCELLENT to guard against appendicitis.—Walker's Drug Store. 923 Col lege Ave. adv.

Gutter Awaits First Baptism Of 'Real Stuff'

If you have a thirst that can't be quenched don't hang around the police station after prohibition officers and police have made a liquor raid in the city or you will see a heart-breaking sight.

You would probably catch sight of Chief George T. Prim, perhaps assisted by other officers, unceremoniously dumping the confiscated liquor into the gutter and if tears didn't trickle down your cheeks as the brown liquid crept toward the storm sewer there is no doubt but they would fall in a profuse shower when clear amber-colored bonded whisky was consigned to the same fate.

But the latter had it better yet. So far nothing but brown bitter "moonshine" has come into the clutches of the law. "But suppose you did seize some mellow bonded Scotch in a raid?" Chief Prim was asked. "Oh, well," the chief replied, "if they could prove they had it before the eighteenth amendment went into effect we couldn't touch it. If they couldn't prove that, it would be confiscated and dumped into the sewer just like 'moonshine'."

But so far the gutter has yet to feel its first baptism of Scotch Bourbon.

EQUITY ABANDONS MARKETING SCHEME

Plan to Have Farmers Pool All Their Milk Fails to Win Approval

Plans for a gigantic consolidated dairy marketing system in Wisconsin which were promoted by the American Society of Equity will be abandoned, it was announced Thursday by Edward Nordman, state commissioner of markets.

This huge plan would have directly affected the sale of $150,000,000 worth of dairy products in the state annually. In making the plan it was estimated that there are 2,000,000 cows in the state. Also that there are 3,000 cheese factories, 1,000 creameries and 60 condenseries. The idea was to have all cows registered and to pool all milk and cream and then have it distributed equitably among the cheese factories, creameries and condenseries.

At its annual convention in December the society appointed Mr. Nordman and Prof. Theodore Macklin of the state university to study and investigate the proposition and help with its formation. These two men have now completed their investigation and will advise against putting the plan in operation.

AWARDED SECOND DIVORCE DECREE FROM SAME MAN

Helen Bushey's Second Effort to Live With Husband is Failure

For the second time in two years Helen E. Bushey was granted a divorce from Gerald H. Bushey on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment when Judge A. M. Spencer announced a decree in her favor in municipal court Saturday.

The two were married in Detroit, Aug. 19, 1913. In November, 1920, Mrs. Bushey entered petition for divorce in Milwaukee-co. circuit court on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and judgment was rendered in her favor in April, 1921. On Sept. 20, the same year, the court ordered its decision vacated when both parties appeared and showed that a reconciliation had occurred and they had resumed marital relations.

In her second petition for divorce in municipal court here Mrs. Bushey declared that in spite of their previous reconciliation she found it impossible to live with her husband because he treated her cruelly and spoke to her in vile language. On the night of Nov. 29, 1921, the petition said, he hit her and tried to choke her.

By the court's decree Mrs. Bushey will receive $250 alimony in a lump sum. The couple had no children.

ELITE THEATRE TO BE MORE THAN TWICE AS LARGE

Proprietor Has Plans Almost Ready for Enlarging Structure

Among the many buildings to be erected this spring is the new addition to the Elite theater which will increase the seating capacity of that popular motion picture house from 500 to 1,200.

Neil Duffy, proprietor, has just returned from Milwaukee and Chicago, where he made a careful inspection of all the motion picture theatres with the idea of embodying all the latest ideas in his new building.

The addition will occupy the vacant lot immediately east of the present theater building which the proprietor recently purchased from A. J. Her-mann. The plans for the new structure are well under way. The new building will harmonize with the present theater and it is possible the front will be changed to meet the requirements of the enlarged building.

By HARRISON VAUGHN

When Napoleon led his victorious armies through Europe, his worst enemies were not the nations defending themselves against his smashing onslaught; but he was confronted by the graver questions of how to provide nourishing and strengthening food for his soldiers.

The Great Corsican realized long over a century ago, as has every commanding general since, that men's bodies must be perfectly nourished if they are to retain their natural strength, energy and vigor; in fact that the very health of the human being is regulated almost entirely by the stomach. Under-feeding, insufficient nourishment, means loss of flesh, anaemia, lack of red blood and subsequent weakness of the entire system.

What such people need to enable nature to bring back their strength and vigor, restore their lost weight, and put them in fighting trim, with rich, red blood coursing through their veins is Taniae, the powerful reconstructive tonic and body builder.

A man or woman suffering from sour stomach, bad breath, biliousness, indigestion, or gas on stomach, is unfitted either for physical or mental labor. Sufferers from these ailments find life a burden; they look on the world through blue glasses, the joy and rewards of the vigorous, happy, normal healthy person is not theirs. Their troubles embitter them against the world, destroy their ambitions and make their lives dull and unhappy.

How foolish to continue in this condition when on every hand throughout the length and breadth of the land, people by the thousands are daily testifying to the remarkable powers of Taniae in conquering stomach troubles. This powerful reconstructive medicine builds up the weak and the despondent; gives them new hope and happiness and a new lease on life.

Taniae's name has been praised by hundreds of thousands. Testimonials from every corner of the United States and Canada have shown conclusively that even in cases where patients had almost given up all hope and where men and women had believed themselves doomed to a life of misery and suffering, Taniae has overcome their troubles and brought back health, energy and happiness in to their lives.

If you are not "fit as a fiddle" in the morning and don't feel better than when you went to bed, if your breath is offensive and you have that bad taste in your mouth, your body is not being nourished properly. What you need is Taniae to restore you to normal so Nature can bring back the flesh you've lost, put the bloom of health in your cheeks, the spring of energy in your step and the sparkle of happiness and contentment in your eye.

NOTE—Taniae Vegetable Pills are an essential and vitally important part of the Taniae treatment. You cannot hope to get the most satisfactory results from Taniae without first establishing a free and regular movement of the bowels. Taniae Vegetable Pills are absolutely free from calomel and are sold on a positive guarantee to give satisfaction.

Taniae is sold in Appleton by Vold Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere.

WANT WATCHMAN AT GIRLS' HALL

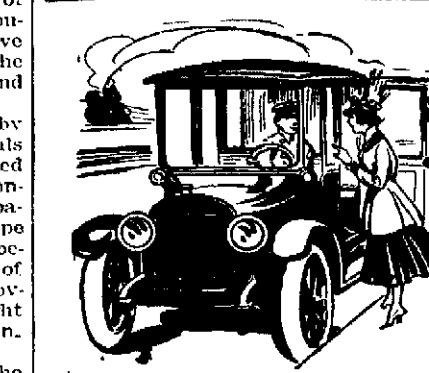

Russell Sage girls, living on the first floor of the dormitory, are anxious that the Appleton police force station a night watchman outside to protect them from intruders who may come to disturb their slumber.

Twice in one week and several times recently, the girls have been badly frightened. Two men, one tall and broad shouldered, the other rather short, were seen to noiselessly crawl up on the porch which runs along the west side of the dormitory, and look in at the first floor windows. One evening the intruders arrived as early as 8:30 but usually it has been around 12 o'clock. The dean of women, Mrs. Mary Beal Housel, was immediately notified in each case and the police were summoned but failed to arrive in time to catch the offenders.

It is no wonder then, that after several such frights, nervous girls living on the first floor of the dormitory are unable to sleep nights and as a result are suffering ill health. A night-watchman is the demand and seems to be the only solution, the girls say.

How Nucoa is Made

NUCOA—the wholesome, delicious nut butter—is made entirely from rich coconut and peanut oils and pure pasteurized milk. It is churned, worked, salted and packed. In our modern sunlit plants every process insures the purity and cleanliness of the product.

NUCOA is used for all table purposes just as creamery butter is used. It competes with creamery butter on its merits alone—flavor, purity and long-keeping qualities.

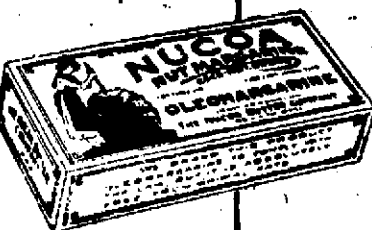

It's the sheer "goodness" of Nucoa that makes it the choice of housewives everywhere—from the well-to-do to those of modest income.

FIERY, ITCHY SKIN QUICKLY SOOTHED WITH SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing subdues fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store. adv.

Taffeta plays an important part in the Spring Frocks
and yet fashion still clings to crepes

Nothing will quite usurp the place of the Taffeta Frock for early Spring. The new dresses which have arrived this week emphasize that fact—Taffeta creates a new silhouette—a bit different from the straight line. There is something in it of pertness, of vivacity, of youth. Already these little frocks are finding ready sale in our dress section. The low prices, are the source of much favorable comment and prove beyond question that one can be well dressed economically.

Paris seems reluctant to abandon her soft clinging crepes. And so she has fashioned them into gowns that boast new lines, new trimmings and new treatment. The new sleeves are delightfully different, and such a profusion of them. They make one think of the sleeves of twenty years ago, if you can think back that far. There must be puffs—it may be at the wrist or it may be at the elbow and there is nearly always a touch of color or a saucy little bow or maybe a bit of embroidery or braid. Waists are slightly draped.

May we have the pleasure of showing you? These little dresses are just as new to us as they are to you and we shall really enjoy exhibiting them for you.

Taffetas $29.75 to $52.50
Crepes $22.50 to $57.50

MOTHER!
Clean Child's Bowels with
"California Fig Syrup"

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, give a teaspoonful to cleanse the liver and bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother: You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

KAUKAUNA IS NOT SUPPORTING CAGERS
Very Few Games Have Drawn
Big Enough Crowds to Pay Expenses

Kaukauna—Basketball seems to have been a jinx in Kaukauna this season. Several attempts have been made by different teams to conduct games that would pay expenses but without success. High school basketball games draw large crowds because the admission was almost nothing.

Another attempt to get the sport stirred up will be made by the Mulford Clothing team when it meets the Appleton Speed Boys in a game Wednesday evening in the auditorium. It will be the first game in several weeks. A preliminary game will be played between the Rannick's Specials and the Dynamite five. The Specials have been having a winning streak this season and are looking for new teams to conquer. William Taylor has been made booking manager and teams averaging 110 to 115 pounds are asked to write him.

One Reason Why CASCARA QUININE Acts On The Spot

HEALTHY C. R. Q. Tablets are best by test. Try this simple experiment:
1. Drop a C. R. Q. Tablet in a glass of clear water.
2. Instantly the tablet begins disintegrating or "breaking up."
3. In 10 seconds the medicinal properties are thoroughly mixed with water.
Then, Mrs. C. R. Q. Tablets act immediately, give relief without delay and begin checking Colds and La Grippe long before ordinary tablets, by actual test, are absorbed by the stomach juices. To prove this, subject other than C. R. Q. Tablets to the test, and observe that in most instances no longer or more is required for complete disintegration.

The STEP on the STAIRS

by ISABEL OSTRANDER

"She asked if the Griswold woman had displayed any particular talent in any direction such as amateurs theatricals or that sort of thing, but all I recalled the creature had done had been to sketch clever but rather cruel caricatures now and then for our amusement."

"Just one more question, Mrs. Tyrrell," begged Barry. "You said the girl's hair looked as if it had been bleached out in the sun; do you remember whether it was curly or straight?"

"Straight as a string," Mrs. Tyrrell responded. "Irene's hair had been soft and curling about her face, while her sister's was flat and dank and unpleasant-looking as though she had been drowned! Now I really must hurry or you'll miss your train."

He took leave of Mrs. Tyrrell at the station just as the New York train was pulling in, but made no attempt to get aboard; instead he waited for the Western express and as he entered the Pullman he chuckled to himself.

"What a coincidence! Fate played right into my hands!"

CHAPTER XII

The group which gathered in Professor Semyonov's shabby, comfortable living room a few days later was a strangely assorted one, but the faces of all held the same intent expression and their eyes were focussed on the boyish figure which lounged easily in the window seat. All the tenants of the house were present except the keeper of the antique shop; Gordon Ladd, moody and silent; Henry Griswold with his little skull cap; the professor himself, as imperturbable as ever, and even the pale, shrinking little Miss Shaw from her attic studio.

In addition the Chief had condescended to come over from headquarters and lend his august countenance to the proceedings, and Sergeant Craig stood near, looking as though he were not quite sure what was going to drop on him, while, unseen, outside the door two stalwart men remained on guard.

"I've got a little story to tell you all; it won't take long," the figure in the window straightened.

Deep silence rewarded him save for an audible gulp from Craig and a slight rustle of Miss Shaw's gown as she settled back resignedly in her chair. Barry went on:

"Long ago in a village in Michigan, two girls were left orphans under the rascally guardianship of a hypocritical bank president. The older girl was delicate, the younger crippled to the point of physical deformity but with the strong, determined, alert mind. They were reared in a little property and their guardian made up his mind to marry the oldest girl off as early and as well as possible, but he saw his chance with the younger one because of her infirmity. He put her in an institution which was practically an idiot asylum, and her older sister was powerless to help her."

"It is a wonder that the little cripple's mind didn't give way with the horrors about her, but it didn't even when a greater horror and grief came into her life. Their guardian sent the older sister to a fashionable school in another state where a daughter of a rich family grew fond of her and took her to her own home in a distant city for a summer vacation."

"There the orphan met and married a man of wealth whom she loved devotedly, but who fell into the toils of a designing woman of undeniable fascination; the woman who was shot to death downstairs a few nights ago, the erring blackmailing wife of Mr. Griswold, here."

A gasp that was like the stirring of leaves ran around the little circle, but no one spoke and after a moment Barry continued:

"There were two years of happy married life, however, before the other woman appeared upon the scene, and during those two years the bride was enabled to prove her law as the younger sister, romping her by law from the hands of their guardian and have her completely cured of the physical disability which had crippled her. In return the younger sister adored her passionately with a single-hearted devotion which bore fruit in later years."

"When the woman known to all of you but one as 'Mrs. Vane' eloped with the husband of the older sister it broke her heart and destroyed her mind. She died within the year and when her husband heard of it he shot himself in remorse; the cartridge shell from that shot was found among the so-called Mrs. Vane's effects a few days ago."

"In the meantime, however, she had found her husband again, succeeded by a ruse in making circumstances appear in the eyes of the law as though he had returned, and she had been completely cured of the physical disability which had crippled her. In return the younger sister adored her passionately with a single-hearted devotion which bore fruit in later years."

"She was plentifully supplied with money and the little sister was poor, with her own living to make while she pursued her search, but she shared it for seven years, and then the long arm of coincidence stepped in and placed her enemy within her reach. Only two things puzzle me when she first knew that Mrs. Vane was Miriam Griswold, and what he came of the small pistol with which she fired from the fire escape through the bull's-eye which she had previously marked upon the canvas of the portrait, straight into Mrs. Vane's heart. — Can you tell us, Miss Barrows?"

He turned abruptly to the small figure of Miss Shaw, but this time she did not shrink, nor was there the slightest surprise nor hesitation as she replied:

"Yes, the pistol is here. I knew that Professor Semyonov's apartment was the only one in the building which would be exempt from search, so while he was downstairs with you, Sergeant Barry, before Sergeant Craig came up I slipped in here—the door had been left open—and dropped the pistol behind that pile of violin music. I could see it hadn't been touched for months."

"It is nearly a month since," the young woman went on, "going out late one evening I passed Mrs. Vane's door and heard her in a heated discussion with Mr. Griswold. Of course I knew who he was from the day he came here to live so I stopped and listened. She was making a demand for more money and I soon heard enough to tell me that my search was finally ended. I had a speaking acquaintance with her already and a week after that night I managed to have her invite me into her studio."

"I watched her as she sat upon her stool, painting, saw that her breast was on a level with the third step of the stairs in the portrait and, getting behind it, marked the spot on the canvas with a bit of red sassafras. You see, I'd planned during that week just what I should do. I knew that she often worked at night and I only awaited my opportunity."

"—AND DROPPED THE PISTOL BEHIND THAT PILE OF VIOLIN MUSIC."

She nodded and even smiled slightly at Craig, who stood awkwardly dangling in his huge hands the tiny pistol he had retrieved from beneath the dusty heap of music.

"That's what I did it with; I've carried it for seven years, but I'm finished with it now."

"What made you go down again afterwards, Miss?" Craig evidently felt that something was expected of him. "I mean when the medical examiner was there and ordered you away from the corpse?"

"I wanted to smear the brown paint which I knew was still wet on the canvas, over the bullet hole so that it would not be so readily discovered, and I did."

She turned to Barry. "I don't in the least care what happens to me now, but I am curious to know what made you suspect me at first."

"The caliber of the pistol used," he replied. "It was distinctly a woman's weapon; Mrs. Vane was the ruthless, predatory type who if she turned sex outlaw would be the natural enemy of all women; you were the only other feminine tenant in the house and you made contradictory statements. When I found the bullet hole in the canvas I knew the shot must have been fired from just outside the window, the fire escape was the only means of access and the choice lay between you and Mr. Griswold. He would not have paid blackmail to her all these years if he had meant to run his own neck in a noose by eliminating her, so when I started West we were pretty sure of our ground, Sergeant Craig and I."

"But the steps we heard on the stairs?" Professor Semyonov exclaimed.

"They were those of Mr. Griswold ascending and a moment later Mr. Ladd descending," Barry remarked. "Chief, I think our case is finished."

"May I speak?" Professor Semyonov rose before the official could reply. "If it can be proven that this young lady was for years of whom I know and which the District Attorney himself will endorse, and the world will have forgotten alike the evil woman whose execution took place beneath this roof and the manner of it."

"I'll take a chance on your time, Professor!" The Chief spoke in a relieved tone. "Sergeant Craig, see that Miss Barrows is placed in the prison ward at Bellevue temporarily, under the charge of man

After the young woman had been led away sobbing hysterically, Professor Semyonov then turned to Barry with a whimsical smile. "You were right, my friend, it had everything to do with the crime after all; that step on the stairs."

THE END.

OPEN DOORS OF GARAGE WHEN TESTING ENGINE

Madison—Better open your garage door before you start the engine of your automobile, the state board of health warns, in announcing that six persons were killed in the first eleven months of 1921 from carbon monoxide poisoning, resulting from the gas from gasoline engine exhausts.

Other precautions urged were: Don't work near the exhaust of an engine while the engine is running; have a garage pit specially ventilated; systems for heating closed cars through exhausts must be free from leaks. Don't run engine while car is in closed garage.

Artificial respiration was recommended as first-aid treatment to persons overcome by the deadly carbon monoxide gas.

Lots Of Cake Recipes But Few For Invalid Cooking

Here are the last of the cake recipes, making more than 145, which have been printed in the Post-Crescent since Monday, Jan. 16. Some very good cake recipes came to the contest editor after the recipes were sent to the judges and these have been turned over to the recipe committee of the home economics department of Appleton Women's club.

Very few recipes for food for sick folks have been sent in during this week. Everyone realizes the great need for more and more ways of fixing wholesome and attractive food for people who are ill or even feeling a little bit badly. A housewife who can tempt a person to eat either with variety or with attractiveness of food is doing a great service to those who come to her table. More people would do it if they had the ideas. Send them along.

Here are the last of the cake recipes:

PORK CAKE
Chop one pound of fat pork very fine, and pour over it a pint of boiling water. Then stir in three cups brown sugar, one of molasses, one of ground cloves, one pound of stoned raisins, eight cups of flour, and two cups soda dissolved in a little water. Stir four or five minutes and bake in slow oven for one hour.—Mrs. T. O. Murphy, 455 Cherry-st.

PLAIN ONE EGG CAKE
Put in a bowl without stirring the following ingredients in the order given:
1 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 cup milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla or lemon extract, 4 tablespoons melted butter, 2 level cups sifted flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt and a level teaspoon baking powder. Then stir together till well mixed and bake in a loaf tin. By doing this not any of the strength of the ingredients is lost. Cover with any desired good frosting.—Mrs. Arthur Gottfried, R. 3, Hortonville.

CRUMB CAKE
2 1/2 cups flour, 2 cups sugar, 1 tablespoon butter, teaspoon baking powder. Mix between fingers like pike crust. Reserve 1/4 cup crumbs. Add 1 egg, 1 cup sour milk, 1 teaspoon soda, flavor with nutmeg. Pour into pan. Sprinkle the 1/4 cup of crumbs over the top and bake. This cake needs no frosting.—Mrs. Tillie Murphy, 1020 Seventh-st.

DEVILS FOOD
1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup butter, 1 egg, 1/2 cup sour milk, 1 level teaspoon soda. Pinch of salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 squares bakers Chocolate melted in 1/2 cup hot water, add last.

DEVILS FOOD
1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup butter, 1 egg, 1/2 cup sour milk, 1 level teaspoon soda. Pinch of salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 squares bakers Chocolate melted in 1/2 cup hot water, add last.

JIM'S EGY CAKE
1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup shortening butter and oil, 2 eggs, 1 cup milk, 2 cups flour, 2 even teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt. Flavoring, finely sliced citron or raisins or nuts.—Mrs. E. Louise Ellis.

MOCK ANGEL FOOD
Three fourths cup sugar, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 2 egg whites, 1 teaspoon almond oil, 1 cup boiling water, pinch of salt. Sift flour, sugar, salt, and baking powder together. Add boiling milk, and then the well beaten whites of eggs and extract. Bake in a buttered loaf dish in a slow oven gradually increasing the heat, allowing from 30 to 40 minutes for the baking. When the cake shrinks from the sides, remove from the oven, invert the dish and allow the cake to drop of its own accord from the dish. This insures against sagging.—Mrs. Nellie Brown, 605 John-st.

APPLE CAKE OR KUCHEN
2 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup butter, 1/4 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 cup milk. Mix flour, baking powder, salt and sugar with butter like a pie crust, then add egg and milk. Spread with knife in tin and bake. Pare 5 apples, slice, put on top and cover with sugar and cinnamon and bake about 25 minutes.—Mrs. Emma Ross, 902 Durkee-st.

CREOLE CAKE
Mix 1/2 cup butter and 1 cup brown sugar until creamy, and add yolks of three eggs after they have been beaten until thick and lemon colored. Mix and sift 2 cups flour, with 1 teaspoon soda and add alternately with 1/2 cup sweet milk to the above mixture.

Melt 4 1/2 squares unsweetened chocolate in a pan over boiling water. Add alternately 1 cup brown sugar and 1/2 cup sweet milk. When mixture is smooth remove from stove and cool. Combine parts one and two and beat vigorously. Turn into 2 cake tins and bake in moderate oven. Put together with quality frosting and spread over all two squares melted unsweetened chocolate.

Quality Frosting
Put 1 1/2 cup white granulated sugar and 1/4 cup brown sugar in a pan with 1/4 cup boiling water. Place on fire and bring to a boiling point. Then let boil with as little stirring as possible until it will spin a thread. Pour gradually on the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs and beat until cool. Then set the mixture over a pan of boiling water and cook until it becomes slightly granular around edges. Remove from water and beat

Polly and Paul--and Paris

Chapter 28--D'Armenonville

BY ZOE BECKLEY

The smart restaurant called d'Armenonville, gay with striped awnings and little tables on porches and lawns basks in a sunny woodland—a part of Paris' vast park. In a sun-dappled corner sat Polly, elbows on table, looking interestedly into the face of George Barry, man-of-the-world.

"And aren't you afraid of me?" He was asking, half teasing, half meaning it.

"And why should I be?"

"You shouldn't. Only you're awfully different from—that is, I mean that when I proposed the luncheon last night I was afraid you'd say you couldn't come without Miss Rand or your husband—"

"How am I different?" Polly couldn't resist the human longing to talk about herself.

He helped her to salad. Little smile-wrinkles were round his eyes. His hands were remarkably fine in shape and beautifully cared for without being what Polly called "fancy work."

"Well, first of all," he said, looking at her as though she were a painting in the salon, to be criticized with care. "You are honest. You show when you enjoy something—when you don't. You have a fresh, enthusiastic viewpoint. And you make up your own mind—don't take somebody's code for you, readymade. Also you have courage and spirit. All these things, I fancy, are American. The woman I'm accustomed to are—well, European."

"And a European woman would be lunching alone with you here in this way?"

"Oh, yes—but in such a different spirit. She'd have some sort of motive behind it."

"Well, so have I," Polly laughed.

ABOUT LIGHTING THE DINING ROOM

Personal Preference Plays Big Part in Choice of Home Lighting

The question of personal preference always plays a large part in the choice of home lighting. This is particularly true of the dining room but usually the main point to be decided is whether direct or semi-indirect light will produce the particular effect desired.

With a direct lighting modern dome fixture most of the light is thrown directly on the table. This emphasizes the table and makes it the most important object in the room. The faces of those seated around the table are illuminated by the light that is reflected from the white table cloth as well as by the light that comes through the glass dome. The dome, because it is glass, also permits some of the light to go to the rest of the room so that the contrast between the table and the walls is not too great for comfort.

When semi-indirect lighting is used, the greater part of the light is reflected by the fixture itself to the ceiling. The ceiling then becomes the light source for the entire room. No one spot is made particularly conspicuous. The important consideration in using semi-indirect lighting is that the ceiling must be of a light color to reflect the light properly.

From the decorative point of view, both types of lighting can be made to harmonize with any special color scheme. The type chosen depends on the artistic effect desired. Wall brackets are often used to give an additional note of color to the room.

Adventures Of The Twins

The Escape

There wasn't a thing to be seen in the empty room of Mr. Nautilus' house when Nancy and Nick slipped in, hoping to find Mr. Hermit Crab. The walls were of finest pearl, as were the floor and ceiling, and the softest loveliest colors were flashing in every direction as the two boys slipped into the room. The twins were so lost in admiration that they did not notice what was happening.

"Oh, oh, oh!" cried Nancy, grabbing Nick's arm. "See how dark it is! Wh—What's happened?"

"You're my prisoners," called Mr. Nautilus through the wall. "You're shut in forever."

"Humph!" called Nick, giving Nancy's hand a comforting pat. "We're not afraid. Our shoes will get us out of this. All we have to do is to wish."

In a whisk, the twins were back at the Cross Roads where Cap'n Pennywinkle was bawling the traffic.

"You blessed children," cried the fairy policeman when he saw them. "I'm so relieved. I found Hermit Crab inside of a wheelbarrow and gave him his lecture. I'm sure he'll be here now. But I've been worried about you. I've had word from the Fairy Queen that she needs you very much. I cannot spare you, its true, but along the fall with Christmas well all 'n' all, she's so extra busy we'll all have to do what we can."

"Oh, goodbye, then, Cap'n Pennywinkle!" said the twins, shaking hands, with the little fairyman. "We'll come back to see you again some day—"

Before he could answer the twins were gone!

Orange and Blue Basket Tossers Take Victory By 28 to 8 Count

Outplaying their opponents in every department of the game and outgunning them from the first whistle until the final gun the Appleton High school basketball team rode soundly over the Oshkosh Normal second five Saturday night in Alexander gymnasium, winning an easy victory, 28 to 8.

Coach Vincent sent his strongest lineup in to start the battle, and with Zimmermann and Brisee connecting with field goals and Brisee dropping pointers in from the free throw line the Appleton aggregation ran up 11 points the first half. Laughlin, Kanouse and Bonini put up a great defensive game and held the visitors to a single field goal. The score at the end of the first half was Appleton 11, Oshkosh 2.

SUBSTITUTES PLAY. With his team a safe lead Coach Vincent sent several substitutes into the lineup at the start of the second half and for ten minutes of the period the Teachers played the preps to a standstill. With ten minutes to go the Appleton Cagers started a furious drive for points and began to hit the hoop from all angles. They connected for seven field goals and three free throws during the period, while the Orange and Blue defense held the visitors to a pair of counters from the field. The teachers annexed two free throws in the second half.

BRILLIANT GAME. The Appleton athletics put up a brilliant game of basketball. They displayed great teamwork, their passing was true and snappy and their basket-shooting accurate. Zussman starred at forward. The Little Orange and Blue star was in the thick of the battle all the way and led his team in scoring with five field goals and a free throw to his credit. Capt. Brisee played a great game at forward. He found the hoop for two field goals and tossed in seven counters from the free throw line. Ehrh, with two field goals, was high scorer for Normal.

MISKE STOPS RENALT IN THIRTEENTH ROUND

New York—Billy Miske, St. Paul Leavewright Saturday night knocked out Jack Renault, champion of the Canadian heavyweight title in the thirteenth round of their fifteen round match. Renault was sent sprawling through the ropes by a straight left to the chin.

The bout was slow and uninteresting until the tenth round, when Miske drew the Canadian into a heavy counter at close quarters. Renault fired badly in the eleventh and twelfth and attempted to take the lead in the thirteenth.

He was sent to his knees with a right to the stomach and fell a victim of Miske's left when he stood up.

Unless Judge Landis rescinds his sentence, banishing Ruth for over a month, it is a certainty that home record will stand at 59.

Huey Jennings will undoubtedly succeed McGraw as manager of the Giants, when the latter decides to give up the leadership of the club, and devote himself to the business end of the game.

The sale of Scott's New York and Dugan to Boston makes it appear as if Detroit was going to fail in its efforts to get an expert

Today's Sport Angle

Willie Hoppe is to get his chance to regain his championship billiard title which he held for so many years.

Jake Schaefer, who dethroned Hoppe has notified the ex-champ to get ready.

The match will be staged at Chicago on March 27, 28, 29. The two stars will meet in Orchestra Hall, which has a seating capacity of 2000. The match will be for 1500 points, played in blocks of 500 each night. Lovers of the billiard game in the east were hoping Schaefer would select New York, but the champion was loyal to Chicago.

Will Schaefer be able to repeat his win over Hoppe and retain his title? Was Hoppe's defeat due to the fact that he did not take the recent tourney seriously enough?

Some of the experts insist Hoppe played far below his game during practically the entire tourney.

Others insist that Hoppe has gone back, that he is no longer invincible. They are positive Schaefer's victory in the coming clash will be even more pronounced.

There is no doubt but that Hoppe is out to regain his title. If he didn't take the other meeting seriously enough, he certainly isn't overlooking a thing for the next meeting.

Ever since his defeat he has been practicing constantly. It is said that he is again at the top of his game.

When Hoppe was champion it was a rarity for him to lose a match to any one in his exhibitions. Conit, the French champion, has beaten Schaefer in exhibitions since he won the title.—B. E.

REFORMERS SET TO STOP NEXT FIGHT

Dempsey - Wills Scrap Isn't Arousing a Great Deal of Interest

New York—Attempts to "build up" a Jack Dempsey-Harry Wills heavyweight championship fight aren't causing the expected seventh degree of interest.

William A. Brady, who figured prominently in the Dempsey-Carpenter proceedings until it came down to real business, says it is the "next battle of the century."

Perhaps Wills is the best man in the field to give Dempsey more than a little high priced exercise, but it is extremely doubtful that the contest could be staged if fadism wanted it.

The reform bureau which made a belated attempt to stop the fight in Jersey City last July, in the words of one of the leaders of the bureau "will not be caught again this time."

The bureau, it was learned Monday, is not opposed to a mixed bout. Its objections are more general.

"We have plans made to stop any prize fight, at any time in any place," the prominent leader said. He went on to say that the bureau had recruited enough influence since last July to make it politically unwise for any state executive to permit another "million dollar fight."

Neither Dempsey nor Wills have shown haste in posting the $50,000 forfeit which Brady asks to guarantee his $200,000 offer for the fight.

SPORT VIEWS AND NEWS

One of the most wholesome things that has happened to college athletics in this country for a long time is the time and effort which college authorities are putting on the job of cleaning out professionalism. Hardly a day goes by but the sport pages of newspapers tell of a new "house-cleaning" and hint at others to follow.

One of the most drastic housecleanings occurred at Illinois where nine star athletes were barred from further athletic competition because they played in a noncollege football game.

The action wrecked the Illinois 1922 football team.

It takes nerve to junk a fine machine that was looked upon as a possible conference champion contender and it shows a fine sense of duty on the part of the Illinois officials. They have set a splendid example for other Big Ten schools to follow.

The claim that "everybody is doing it" is a most unconvincing defense for athletes and athletic directors who are caught. It is well that they are caught and publicly punished because it is only through public announcement of punishment that public confidence will be restored.

Lawrence college in Appleton was one of the pioneers in this movement to purge out professionalism and it started right at home. Other state schools have followed closely and it is believed that it will not be long before there will be only bona fide amateurs playing with amateur teams again.

ALL-STAR VOLLEY TEAMS TO BATTLE HERE IN TOURNEY

Appleton, Milwaukee, Madison and Fond du Lac Series is Arranged

Volleyball teams representing the Y. M. C. A. of Appleton, Milwaukee, Madison and Fond du Lac will clash in a tournament on the Appleton Y. M. C. A. floor on Feb. 3. The annual state Y. M. C. A. conference is to be held in this city on Feb. 4 and 5 and the volleyball event is to be held on the eve of the conference to provide entertainment of the early arrivals among the delegates. The teams taking part will be all-star aggregations. The teams will be composed of six players. Drawings will be made to determine the opposing teams for the first matches. The winners of the first matches will play for first and second place and the losers of the first matches will clash for third and fourth places.

Interclass volleyball matches will get underway at the Appleton Y. M. C. A. on Feb. 3. The interclass council is making arrangements for the tournament which will be a round affair, with each team meeting the others once. Eight teams, two from each Y. M. C. A. gymnasium class, will compete in the series. The teams will be chosen by the class councils.

Following the interclass tournament an all-star team will be selected from each class and a series will be held to decide the Y. M. C. A. championship. The all-star teams will be chosen by vote of the class they are to represent. The men receiving the largest vote from their class will be the captains.

It is understood that McGraw has no intention of using O'Connell, his $75,000 beauty, at first base. He hopes to develop him into a great outfielder, and may request that he be played in that position in the Coast League this year.

Much interest will be taken in the showing made by Jesse Barnes with the Giants this season. A good many National Leaguers insist that Barnes pitched away above his form in the world series.

2 For 25 Cents Cigar Popular With Smokers

Cigars that sell for "two for a quarter" are the happy medium and sell the best in the retail markets according to local cigar and tobacco dealers.

The steady decline in the demand for the higher priced cigars has been noticeable in the last three years and at the present time smokers are slowly adjusting themselves to the cheaper brands.

"Up until three years ago we sold many cigars that retailed as high as 25 and 50 cents each," said F. X. Bachman, "but since then a steady decline has been noticed. At the present time two for a quarter is the popular choice but the tendency of the trade is more toward the 10 and 15 cent straight cigar. Within a short time I think the 10-center will outrank all cigars in popularity."

Other local dealers also give first place to the popular two for a quarter smokes but hint that the laboring man is content with the 7, 8 and 10 cent cigar in preference to the higher priced cigars.

ST. PAUL SKATER IS WINNER OVER CHAMPION

By United Press Leased Wire St. Paul—Bobby McLean admitted Monday that Everett McGowan was a "great skater."

The St. Paul skater glided around the hippodrome rink Sunday afternoon winning two victories out of three over the Chicagoan. McGowan won the 220 yard dash, and the three mile race. McLean spurred at the finish line and won the half mile.

McGowan lowered the course record for the three mile sprint by five seconds, doing the distance in 8 minutes, 53.15 seconds. He negotiated the 220 in 20 seconds flat. McLean won the half mile in the record time of 1:16.25.

HEAP HONORS ON PASTOR OF LOCAL CHURCH

Elaborate Program Features
Investiture of Monsignor
W. J. Fitzmaurice

More than 1,000 members of St. Mary church and others witnessed the investiture of the Rt. Rev. W. J. Fitzmaurice as domestic prelate by the Rt. Rev. Paul P. Rhode, bishop of Green Bay. The service took place in St. Mary church immediately preceding solemn high mass at 10:30 Sunday morning. The church was crowded to capacity with Catholics who gathered to see the local pastor honored with the title of monsignor. Catholic clergymen from the diocese were present for the service. Former assistants to the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Fitzmaurice in his work at St. Mary church were officers of the solemn high mass. Rev. George Casey of Maple Grove was master of ceremonies and the Very Rev. M. H. Clifford of Oshkosh and the Rev. G. A. Clifford of Menasha were deacons and subdeacons. Other visiting clergy were honorary deacons. Special music for the occasion was given by the choir which sang the "Mass for Our Lady of Peace." The Rev. A. Dohelstein of St. Norbert college, De Pere, composed the music.

SIMPLE CEREMONY

The investiture service itself was very simple and impressive. While Father Fitzmaurice knelt at the foot of the altar, the Very Rev. A. J. Koefler, secretary to Bishop Rhode, read the papal bull which made Father Fitzmaurice a domestic prelate and member of the pope's household. The bull commended the local pastor for his undying efforts with his parish with needy missions and with Catholic charities. The purple vestments, which the office entitles the local priest to wear, were then blessed by the bishop.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop delivered the sermon on "Pristhood," in which he told of the self sacrifice, service and obedience which is necessary in order that a priest may do his duty toward his parishioners. He said that it has been these men of the clergy who feel no sacrifice too great or no service too small to do for their people that have tried the world over great times of stress and evil when the very foundations of Christendom were threatened.

CONGRATULATE PRIEST

Bishop Rhode then congratulated the honor which he had conveyed on Msgr. Fitzmaurice on being worthy of him. He commented on the splendid service which St. Mary's pastor has given to his church and his people for more than 34 years. The bishop said that when a man comes before the same group of people year after year for 34 years and still commands their love and respect he has indeed accomplished a great work. He commented on the work of the local priest in his own parish, his influence outside the church, his sympathy and help to needy missions and his efforts in behalf of Catholic charities.

After the mass which was celebrated by Father Fitzmaurice, benediction was given by the bishop. A dinner to visiting clergy and representatives of the parish was served at Columbia hall at 1 o'clock. Officers of the Christian Mothers of St. Mary church served the dinner. The dining room of the hall was decorated in red and white with many flowers. The clergy present presented Father Fitzmaurice with a purse. Societies of the church and members of the parish also presented him with gifts.

COMMUNITY LEADER

Many friends of Father Fitzmaurice in his church, in Catholic circles all over the state and in the citizenry of Appleton are uniting in congratulating him on the honor which he has been given. In his early years in Appleton, Father Fitzmaurice won a prominent place as a promoter of the best interests of the city. For many years he was a temperance advocate and leader, speaking in many places on the subject. Of late years, Father Fitzmaurice has been spending most of his time with affairs of his parish which has grown and prospered under his direction.

Among the visiting clergy were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. P. J. Lochman, Kaukauna; the Very Revs. Alphons Froens, Sturgeon Bay; John Hummel, Menasha; William Rice, Oshkosh; P. Van Susteren, Green Bay; the Revs. P. N. Steinbrecher, F. X. VanNestle, Kimberly; James Hogan, Stevens Point; W. P. Mortell, Oshkosh; A. Dohelstein, De Pere; J. J. Sprangers, Little Chute; George A. Schiemmer, Mackville; F. L. Ruessman, Appleton; Basil Gummermann and Thophilus Reisinger, Appleton; F. M. McKeogh, Menasha.

Guests at the dinner included the visiting clergy, officials of the ceremony, the Rev. A. Grill, assistant to Msgr. Fitzmaurice, the Hon. Thomas H. Ryan, William Nemacheck, George Baldwin, Charles Baldwin, Mrs. Catherine Baldwin, Mrs. Margaret Miss Hannah Gardner, Miss Frances Baldwin, Mrs. Margaret Clifford, William Clifford, Miss Anna Fitzmaurice, Patten and Miss Birdie Farrell.

The annual poultry show of Fox River Valley Poultry and Pet Stock association at the armory closed Sunday night. In respect to quality of birds it was the most successful show in the history of the association and in number of entries was not surpassed.

Next year the association intends to hold a corn show in connection with the poultry show. The First National bank has offered a purse of $50 for the best corn raised in the county and it is possible that prizes will also be awarded for other farm products.

A "balanced diet" may sound confusing to many people

The facts, as explained
here, are simple.

The secret of a "balanced diet" is to have food containing all the elements needed for proper nutrition. These elements are protein, to nourish the tissues; starch and sugar to furnish energy; fat to supply heat; and mineral salts to provide the material necessary for building nerves, brain, and tooth and bone structure.

Grape-Nuts, the nourishing cereal made of whole wheat flour and malted barley, served with cream or milk, is a complete food for young and old alike.

Go to your grocer today and get a package of Grape-Nuts. Eat it with milk or cream for breakfast; or with stewed fruit, jelly or jam, as a delicious dessert for lunch or dinner.

Every member of the family will relish this palatable and nourishing food—

New hats are here in every mood of the season. There are trig little things in gay colors and large shapes in more sedate shades. Quite the most graceful note in this new display is a rather large hat from Washauer. It is seal brown with a crown of fine lisere braid while the greater part of the wide brim is of faille silk. The lines of the brim roll gently up in the front and back, and droop at the sides.

For the smart young lady there is a jade green hat. The narrow brim is of taffeta while the rather high crown is entirely of fine hair braid. The trimmings are novel in the extreme — tiny oblongs of jade wood and the oddest sort of an ornament.

Another hat that must have stepped from a Parisian sketch is of medium size. It is closely fitted around the face but widens above in graceful lines. The navy Milan is matched with the navy velveteen that trims the front. From De Marinis comes a dark navy hat of Milan braid. The crown is high and the wide brim turns up perpendicularly on one side and is entirely cut away on the other. A trimming of faille silk ends in a jaunty bow that pokes out and down at the side.

There are many models direct from New York for you to see this week.
